

Story creating cards: what character shall we use?, Where shall we go on our adventure?, What might we find?, so many different story opportunities. You could create a story walk to go on around your home or garden, finding different characters on your way. You could try creating your story, having materials for the settings, grass, water, sand, small world characters and props.

